

CLEVELAND WON DECIDING GAME FROM BROOKLYN

Shut Out the National Pennant Winners—
Win Honors

COVELESKIE PITCHES MASTERLY BALL

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—Baseball champions of the world! The Cleveland American League won that supreme title here this afternoon when they defeated the Brooklyn Nationals in the seventh and deciding game of the 1920 series by a score of 3 to 0. Tonight Cleveland is celebrating in a manner adequately in keeping with the honor.

The shutouts victory was chiefly engineered by Stanley Coveleskie, the spitball hurler of the local team, who has proved to be a pitcher of remarkable skill and endurance during the series. Backed by an airtight defense on the part of his teammates at the critical moments of the game, he let the Robins down with five hits. But two Brooklyn players reached second base during their nine sessions at bat and but five of the invaders were left on the bases. Coveleskie's feat in winning three of the five games necessary to clinch the championship for Cleveland will go down as one of the outstanding features of the world's series history and one of the most prominent and praiseworthy factors in a struggle which has furnished more startling incidents than any similar series in years.

But Two Runs.

The Brooklyn batters accumulated but two runs off Coveleskie in the twenty-seven innings he pitched. He let the Robins down with one run in the first game at Brooklyn on October 5, allowed them a second tally on Saturday and shut them out today. It is doubtful if a more masterly exhibition of pitching has been flashed before the fans in any world series since 1905, when Christy Mathewson, then at the zenith of his twirling career with the New York Giants shutout the Philadelphia Athletics in three games.

Great as must be the credit accorded Coveleskie, the general offensive and defensive work of the other members of the Cleveland club cannot be dimmed. The Indians, as a team, grew more impressive as the series progressed and their feat in winning four straight games from Brooklyn after getting away to a lead in the first game, the club as one deserving the pennant. The Indians led by Manager Tris Speaker rose to playing heights which bore out the complete confidence of the club backers in their ability to prove their right to wear the baseball crown. They reached the spitters of Burleigh Grimes for seven solid hits, clinched the game before the half way mark and topped the play with several pieces of baseball strategy that put the Robins in the possession of mental alertness. The demonstration which marked the final put out of Myers and clinched the championship for the Indians surpassed any similar scene in several seasons.

Thousands of men, boys and women poured out of the bleachers and stands and simply engulfed the victorious players like a human avalanche. It was a continuous battle for the members of the team in their march toward the dugout, each step being taken gloriously with scores of fans endeavoring to shake their hands or pat them on the back.

Speaker Mother Happy.

Tris Speaker, sensing the coming outburst of enthusiasm, made a dash from center field toward the grand stand where his mother and other relatives occupied a lower tier box. His progress was slow but once he reached the rail he vaulted over the iron front and into his mother's arms like a small school boy. The scene was so unusual that for a moment there was a complete cessation of the cheering which, however, broke out with treble vigor when Mrs. Speaker hugged, patted and kissed her gray-haired son and the latter responded in a manner which indicated that he regarded his mother's approval and petting far above any other rewards that might come to him as a result of the victory of his team in winning the greatest honor that can come to a professional baseball player.

When Speaker finally left his mother's side and started for the clubhouse he was fairly besieged by requests to shake hands and autograph programs and photographs. When he finally disappeared into the passage way of dressing quarters the crowds swept back to the Speaker box where they cheered and demanded a speech from the mother of the popular player-manager.

Mrs. Speaker met the demands of the fans by waving her hand and was soon joined by Owner James C. Dunn of fairly besieged by requests to shake hands and autograph programs and photographs. When he finally disappeared into the passage way of dressing quarters the crowds swept back to the Speaker box where they cheered and demanded a speech from the mother of the popular player-manager.

CARPENTIER WINS FROM LEVINSKY BY KNOCKOUT ROUTE

American Fighter Proves
An Easy Victim for Frenchman

CARPENTIER LEAVES RING UNMARKED

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 12.—Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, knocked out Battling Levinsky, holder of the American light heavyweight title in the fourth round of a scheduled 12-round bout. Carpentier, who holds the light heavyweight championship title of Europe, thus becomes the world's title holder in that division.

Carpentier with his manager and seconds entered the ring at 9:55 and received a welcome of hearty cheers, to which he responded by bowing gracefully several times. Levinsky followed two minutes later and then the men were formally introduced. Announcer Humphreys stated that they were to fight twelve rounds for the light heavyweight championship of the world. A corps of photographers then began snapping pictures of the men as they stood together in a neutral corner of the ring.

Carpentier's weight was announced at 170½ pounds and Levinsky's 175.

Early in 1918 Jack Dempsey, who won the world's heavyweight championship knocked out Levinsky in three rounds at Philadelphia. Tonight Carpentier failed to equal Dempsey's time in finishing Levinsky but he is the only one outside of the champion who has knocked out Levinsky since the latter became prominent as a fighter.

By his victory over Levinsky, Carpentier has earned the right to meet Dempsey for the world's championship.

Both in Splendid Condition

Levinsky was in splendid condition and so was Carpentier. From the middle of the first round when the Frenchman began to cut loose, the outcome was inevitable. His blows were well delivered and effective while Levinsky's plucky returns were too light to do much damage. Twice in the second round Carpentier sent Levinsky to the floor of the ring with hard right crosses. During the third session Carpentier slowed up a bit and seemed undecided as to what his next move should be. When he did start after his man, however, he used both hands powerfully and Levinsky who always was credited with being able to absorb punishment, was visibly weakening.

In the final round Carpentier simply battered Levinsky into submission and when the battle fell almost thru the ropes in a neutral corner he was unable to get up while Referee Eris counted him out.

Levinsky was badly punished while Carpentier did not show a mark when he left the ring.

NOTHING TO RAVE ABOUT IN HARDING STATEMENT—JOHNSON

California Senator Says "The League is Great Issue."

EVERYBODY FAVORS PLAN TO STOP WAR

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Senator Hiram Johnson of California arrived in Chicago this afternoon on his first trip east since his unsuccessful fight for the Republican nomination in June. He announced that he sees nothing to "rave about in Senator Harding's latest announcement on the league of nations in which he reiterated that he favors a world association."

"The great issue," said Senator Johnson, "is 'THE' league of nations. Senator Harding says he has scrapped that league. His statement yesterday simply recited the facts of a world association to discourage war and encourage peace. No thinking man or woman in the world can be opposed to some plan for preventing war."

ACTIVITIES OF WHISKEY RING TO BE INVESTIGATED

Will Inquire Into Illegal Liquor Shipments

WILL IMPLICATE SCORE OF PERSONS

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Government investigation of the activities of a ring of whiskey dealers operating on a national scale has begun as the result of confessions obtained from several Chicago saloonkeepers it was declared by federal agents today.

The confessions are said to have implicated officials of several distilling companies and several politicians, and to have revealed plans to make Chicago the center of their proposed scheme.

According to federal agents, H. A. Sadler, a former New York stock broker, is said to have declared that he paid $45,000 to a Chicago politician who has been employed as a deputy United States revenue agent in the office of Collector Mager to secure influence in the issuance of forged federal permits under which whiskey running in Chicago has been carried on. The indictment of at least a score of persons on charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition amendment will be asked this week at the federal grand jury it was stated at the federal building.

The disclosures regarding the Chicago operations of the ring are said to have resulted from the seizure here on August 24 of a shipment of 1,000 cases of whiskey of 1,200 case shipment addressed to H. A. Sadler in care of American Distilling Company. The liquor was shipped from Louisville and its seizure was followed by the arrest of Sadler who was later released on bonds. Sadler is said to have declared that the outlaw liquor valued 1 million dollars was shipped from New York, Pittsburgh and Louisville into Chicago.

ROOSEVELT SAYS LEAGUE IS NOT WILSON'S LEAGUE

Is Everybody's League, Vice Presidential Candidate Says

PRESIDENT'S DUTY TO REPRESENT US

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 12.—Making public a copy of a letter alleged to have been sent by Senator Harry S. New, chairman of the Republican Speaker's Bureau to republican spellbinders advising them that the league of nations "should always be referred to as Mr. Wilson's league," Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic vice-presidential nominee in an address here tonight bitterly condemned such reference as a deliberate and wilful misstatement of fact.

"If there is anyone clear fact about this league of nations controversy," he said, "it is that it is not 'Mr. Wilson's league' nor any other single person's league—it is not even an American league or a French league. It is a league worked out around a council table of the allied nations after the armistice founded upon the mutual desire of all nations to render future wars, I not possible at least highly improbable. In this control each nation took its part and because America has no selfish interest to serve, it was given, by common consent a leadership part in the formation of the league plan."

"President Wilson represented as was his official duty, America at this council, but America's suggestions were not anymore exclusively Mr. Wilson's ideas than was the whole league plan exclusively America's suggestion."

KING ALEXANDER IS RECOVERING FROM MONKEY BITE

Strong Constitution Saves His Life, Physicians
Say

BUT LITTLE CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—Only the strong constitution of King Alexander of Greece is relied upon by his physicians to bring him thru the crisis of his illness resulting from the bite of a monkey a short time ago. It was admitted today that the king had entered into the critical phase of his illness. The government discussed the question of a regency and decided that the council of ministers would take up the task of administering the country in the event of the king's condition becoming worse.

Yesterday it was said at the palace that there had been little change in the condition of Alexander over that of Sunday. His physicians at that time refrained from giving any concise statement.

Today's statement was the first intimation that the physicians in attendance were relying only on the strong constitution of King Alexander, who is but 27 years old to save him.

MICHIGAN FARMER MURDERS CHILDREN BURIES THEM ALIVE

Confesses Deed to Officers Who Did Not Believe Him

GO TO SPOT AND FIND BABIES BODIES

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 12.—Earl Roop, a farmer, was arraigned today on a charge of murdering his daughters, Dorothy and Bernice, aged 3 and 2 respectively, whom he buried alive on his farm ten miles from here Monday, according to his reported confession to Sheriff Sibley. Preliminary hearing was set for tomorrow after Roop had stood mute and a plea of not guilty had been entered by the court.

Dependancy over financial matters and the failure of his crops, according to the sheriff, was given by Roop as the reason for his alleged act.

Roop told of taking the children from his house on Monday to a field through which ran the Red Cedar river. There Roop said, he administered chloroform to the little girls, then set about digging a hole in the soft earth near the river.

While he was thus engaged, Dorothy revived, Roop told the sheriff and walked over to him. He then carried Bernice to the river and placed both children in the hole, covering their bodies with mud. Sibley quoted him as saying:

Officers would not believe the man's story until they had gone with him to the spot and found the bodies of the babies this morning.

SENATOR HARDING STARTS ON INVASION OF ENEMY COUNTRY

Republican Candidate Will Speak in Tennessee and Kentucky

IS CONSIDERING EASTERN TRIP

On Board Senator Harding's Special Train, Oct. 12.—Beginning what may be his last speaking tour outside Ohio, Senator Harding journeyed southward tonight for an invasion of territory which has been counted democratic for half a century.

Opening with a speech tomorrow night at Chattanooga, Tenn., he will swing northwest on the following day to Louisville, Ky., through a section belonging normally to the solid south. Many stops are to be made on the way for rear platform speeches and the nominee indicated tonight that he was prepared to make a vigorous and aggressive fight to swing the two states over to the republican column.

McCombs the candidate and his managers are holding in obedience a final decision on the question of an eastern trip in late October or early November. Plans already have been announced for a speech in Buffalo, New York on October 21, and there has been a tentative agreement to take the nominee also to New York City and New England but tonight serious consideration is being given to a cancellation of the whole eastern program. Should any trip be made to the east it is possible that the Buffalo date will be switched to New York City and that only one speech will be made.

COX ON JOURNEY IN ILLINOIS TALKS FOR PEACE LEAGUE

Says Senator Harding Must Not Be Taken Seriously

MUST HAVE LEAGUE TO RESTORE BUSINESS

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 12.—Governor Cox of Ohio in a busy tour today of Illinois and Indiana hammered heavily upon the league of nations pronouncements of himself and Senator Harding, picturing his Republican opponent as "swigging and wobbling."

The democratic candidate emphasized to sixteen audiences, that he was for the league with "whole heart and soul."

Centering his assault upon Senator Harding's league statement today, Governor Cox declared it vacillating, the eleventh position assumed by Senator Harding and at the heels of a tempest aroused by Mr. Harding's Des Moines speech. That the senator's proposal for a new association of nations was held by former president Taft to be impractical was also stressed by the democratic nominee.

Referring to today's statement by Senator Harding, Governor Cox said:

Says Harding Wobbles

"The vacillating attitude of Senator Harding justifies neither the American people nor the nations of the world in taking his seriously. It is apparent that he hasn't a single deep-seated conviction upon the subject and that he wobbles about from one day to the other in the aimless hope that this group or that group of voters can be pleased. It is the most pitiable spectacle in the political history of America."

MAN O'WAR BEATS SIR BARTON IN EASY FASHION IN CANADA

American Horse Won
Race by Eight
Lengths

TIME FASTER THAN CANADIAN RECORD

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 12.—The thoroughbred championship of the American continent rests tonight on the American side of the border.

Man o' War, the greatest three-year-old of the year galloped home with the equine honors of 1920 at Kenilworth Jockey Club track this afternoon a full eight lengths in front of Sir Barton, the great four-year-old from Commander J. K. L. Ross, stables. The time was 2:03, more than a full second faster than the old Canadian record for the distance.

Samuel D. Riddle, of Philadelphia, owner of the victor, is the richer tonight by the purse of $75,000 and a gold cup valued at $5,000.

The race was over a course of a mile and a quarter at weight for age, the winner carrying 120 pounds to the loser's 126.

The time 2:03 flat, was more than a second slower than the record of both horses. Sir Barton has a mark of 2:02 4-5 which was later tied by Man o' War. The slow time was partly due to the fact that the victor was never in danger from the time he took the lead at the first sixteenth pole. Sir Barton drew the rail and was away with a jump, but the lead was short lived. Jockey Clarence Kummer sent Man o' War alongside and then ahead. When the stands were reached at the end of the first quarter the Riddle horse had a two length lead. Frankie Keough, who had the mount on the Canadian horse as a result of a last minute change when Commander Ross withdrew Jockey Earle Sande, rode a hard race but was unable to cut down that distance. Kummer kept Man o' War in check to the three quarter pole and then let out a wrap and the great three-year-old responded with a burst of speed that left Sir Barton eight lengths behind. The stretch was reached. The last quarter mile down the stretch was an easy gallop with Kummer visibly easing his mount.

The new champion

A BIG PROBLEM

In one state farmers are holding their wheat for $3 a bushel and in another section of the country $2.50 is the price decided upon as the proper minimum. This thing of holding grain for a fixed price will be effective if enough of the producers get into the game. However, farmers of a few states must not delude themselves into thinking that their states control the world supply. There are certain economic facts that must be taken into account when an effort is made to control market conditions.

Wisconsin has increased the assessment of the Pullman company by a few hundred thousands. Evidently the Beaver state authorities believe that all of the increase in Pullman rates is not to be paid to the railroads and that the Pullman interests will have enough increase in revenue to stand the larger assessments.

STRONG FOR THE G. O. P.

Women of Jacksonville and the other precincts of the county are organizing a County Republican club. The slogan is "Five Hundred Members by Today" although the organization is less than 24 hours old. With the enthusiasm that now prevails in this county in the support of the Republican ticket, it will not be a difficult matter to enroll a thousand women in the organization.

A GOOD RECORD

The Salvation Army drive in Morgan county is the next event in the campaign line. The army in its after the war program is doing welfare work effectively. Of the various organizations having part in war time activities, none came out with a better record than the Salvation Army. That record will be of avail to the organization in its peacetime program.

OGLESBY IS A REPUBLICAN

Lieut. Gov. Oglesby declares that he is a Republican and that for this reason he will support the Republican ticket in this state. This evidently means that the lieutenant governor is willing to let the bitterness of the primary campaign be counted in with bygones. When it comes to deciding whether he will support the party nominee, or a Wilson Democrat for the governorship of Illinois, there is only one course open to him. The lieutenant governor is taking the right and reasonable stand.

WILL MAKE ABLE GOVERNOR

Len Small of Kankakee has been declared by the canvassing board of Illinois the Republican nominee for governor. Mr. Small has been a prominent figure in Illinois politics for 10 years. He is a successful farmer and banker. He is a man of unquestioned ability and is familiar with the state business and state needs. As governor of Illinois he will be fully competent to give the state a sound business administration and he has given his word that if elected, that is the kind of administration that the state shall have. Incidentally it is a fact that Mr. Small has the reputation of keeping his word.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

PERIL.

I fear to cross the village street,
Where all the autos wind and mix,
For I am shaky on my feet,
And can't do acrobatic tricks. I tried this morning, just for luck,
To dodge across to Johnson's store,
And I got tangled with a truck,
And broke three ribs, or maybe more. By modern ways I'm badly bored;
I cannot ramble near or far,
But some one climbs me with a Ford,
Or spoils my person with a car. In olden times when horses drew the vehicles in which men rode,
A man could walk a verst or two,
And have no scalp wounds to be sewed. Then one could cross the public way, according to his sane desires, and not be squashed beneath a dray or wound around some rubber tires. You laugh to scorn the old time ways,
The horses and their sluggish game;
But trade went on in those brave days,
And people got there just the same. And sports found just as much delight in driving Dexter or Maud S. as speeders in their autos bright,
Who fill the country with distress. I'd like to cross the village street, to have a haircut and shampoo,
But I'm no longer blithe and fleet,
I can't outjump a kangaroo.

OPPORTUNITIES IN ARMY FOR YOUNG MAN
First Lieutenant E. R. Percy, 52nd Infantry, Camp Grant, visited Jacksonville yesterday in the interest of the campaign of education that the government is now carrying on. That the new army is "constructive in all its branches" is a fact that is not clearly understood. Lieutenant Percy spoke to the boys graduating class at the high school about the work that is being done by the trade schools at Camp Grant.
A young man who has not the means necessary to attend the college of his choice will find at the army schools the best substitute for a college education that has ever been offered. Of course, the majority of opportunities that are offered are for those who desire to master a trade. These boys are allowed to choose from practically any trade that they might care to follow. The automotive course and all its branches offers unlimited opportunities to any young man who is interested in the gas engine. Not only in the gas engine as it is related to the automobile but in tractor, truck or airplane work. Another great course that is appealing to many of the boys from this district is the course in agriculture. In this course the soldier-pupil is taught animal husbandry

OLD JACKSONVILLE

A Romantic Tale
By Enstley Moore

(Memoir Illinois State Historical Society)

Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth, one of the founders of the D. A. B. was the daughter of Col. John J. Hardin.

Mrs. Walworth attended a meeting of the Old Settlers, in the Court House here, January 31st, 1889, and told the following story:

On the far distant battle field of old Saratoga—that battle which is counted one of the fifteen decisive battles of the world—on that field my great-grandfather, another Col. John Hardin, won imperishable fame. He was then an officer in Morgan's famous "Rifle Corps," that corps which Washington considered the index-finger of the strong, right arm of his army, and which he pointed northward to arrest the insolent career of the red hordes in their progress through northern New York. On that glorious field, and in the many desperate battles and amid the severe hardships and privations of the Revolution which followed, John Hardin was among the most active, zealous and efficient of Morgan's officers.

In 1786 he emigrated to Kentucky and from that time he was engaged in every expedition from that state against the Indians until 1792, where he was sent under special orders from President Washington as commissioner to conclude a treaty of peace with various tribes of Indians of the northwestern territory, and was treacherously slain by them. His son, Martin D. Hardin, my grandfather, was an active officer in the war of 1812, was in the terrible battle of the river Raisin, and many other engagements. A singular incident occurred while he was on this campaign, which brought to his knowledge the particular circumstances attending the murder of his father by the Indians.

I must take you back a few years to the time when his father, Col. John Hardin was a pioneer in Kentucky just after the Revolution. It was the custom at the time to capture and hold as prisoners many of the Indians, women and children as well as men. This was done that they might be exchanged for white captives held by the Indians. In this way Col. Hardin had captured and retained in his family an Indian maiden in whom his wife and daughter took warm interest. They named her Barbara, taught her English, and she became an adept in household affairs. Finally while still young she was exchanged for a white prisoner and returned to her tribe.

During the same years that she was captive there had been an Indian boy, one of the finest specimens of his race, also held captive in a similar manner in the family of my other great-grandfather, Gen. Benjamin Logan, whose name you will recognize as one of the earliest and best known of the western pioneers, having accompanied Daniel Boone when he first settled in Kentucky. General Logan was the father of my father's mother, Mrs. Porter Clay, whom many of you know. He named the young Indian he had captured, James Logan, and watched with great pleasure the development of his character under a civilizing process. But in time the Indian Logan was also exchanged, and returned to his tribe, the Shawnees.

Now, when Major Martin D. Hardin met and married Barbara, a civilized while in the Hardin family, Logan soon learned that a son of his wife's benefactor—for such he considered Col. Hardin—was with the army. He sought for Major Martin D. Hardin, and related to him the particulars of his father's death, having heard that he had met and married Barbara, a civilized while in the Hardin family.

Logan soon learned that a son of his wife's benefactor—for such he considered Col. Hardin—was with the army. He sought for Major Martin D. Hardin, and related to him the particulars of his father's death, having heard that he had met and married Barbara, a civilized while in the Hardin family.

Now, these facts, and others which it would take me too long to relate, have come to me through the accidental finding of this old letter which I show you. It is dated Frankfort, Kentucky, July 9th, 1815, signed M. D. Hardin, and is addressed to Gen. Duncan McArthur at Chillicothe, who was about to conclude a treaty with the Indians. In it Gen. M. D. Hardin states that he had promised Capt. James Logan, the Shawnee Indian, while he was dying of the wounds received in the United States service, that he, General Hardin, would attend to the education of his children, and in this letter he commissions Gen. McArthur to send the children into white settlements to attend a white school, if the consent of the chiefs having them in charge could be attained. If not, he was to employ a teacher and send him to live in the Indian village to teach them at Gen. Hardin's expense.

as well as the cultivation of the soil. The most modern methods only are employed in this instruction and the teachers have been secured from the leading colleges. The instruction is both theoretical and practical, with more attention given to the practical application of the work than can be given at many of our universities.

For men who prefer this work, the camp offers a business course that can not be equalled. Short hand and stenography are first taught the pupil. After he has acquired the desired rapidity at this work he goes into other departments and is allowed to specialize in whatever branch of modern business appeals to him most. A pupil who finishes his course in accountancy is competent to pass the state examinations for expert accountant. In other lines, the government offers a thorough course in electricity, carpentry, plumbing, road making and other trades. These are all taught both in theory and practice, unlimited opportunity being presented in the large camps with all their war material on hand, for the practical experience.

The work in the new army is so arranged that the soldier who desires to take advantage of the trade schools will drill as a soldier two hours a day and will study as a pupil, under civilian instructors, six hours a day. By this method of training a man it is believed that the soldier will be returned to civilian life at the completion of his enlistment, not only a trained soldier but a better citizen.

WERE MARRIED AT AN EARLY HOUR TUESDAY

Miss Mary Alice Whalen and Francis T. Sloan United in Marriage Tuesday Morning at Church of Our Savior.

The marriage of Miss Mary Alice Whalen and Francis T. Sloan was solemnized at eight o'clock Tuesday morning at the Church of Our Savior, Rev. Father Cahill officiating. The bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth Sloan, sister of the groom, and John J. Sloan, brother of the groom, was the groomsmen. The flower girls were little Mary Elizabeth and Helen Louise Lair, and the ushers were Elden Gruber and William Shields.

During the impressive service the "Ave Maria" was sung by Misses Celia Maloney, Josephine Gebert, Louise Renner and Celia Kennedy, with Miss Margaret Ring at the organ.

The bride's gown was of white satin with silver lace trimming. She wore a veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of cream taffeta and her bouquet was of Killarney roses. The dresses of the flower girls were of white organdy and they bore baskets filled with pink and white roses. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Barbara Gebert.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whalen, and belongs to the well known Morgan county family. She has for the past several years made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Whalen. Her education was obtained in the parochial schools and at Roult college, graduating from the latter institution. She is a student at Illinois Conservatory of Music and is a young woman of many charming characteristics.

Mr. Sloan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Sloan and has always made this city his home. He is a former student of Roult College and is now employed as boiler-maker at the local C. P. & St. L. shops.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, following the ceremony, a large company of relatives and friends of the young people being the guests. An imposing array of wedding gifts was on display, attesting the warm friendships which the bride and groom enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan left yesterday noon for a brief wedding trip and upon their return to the city will be at home, at 407 South Clay avenue.

This plug is guaranteed free of defects in material, workmanship and service efficiency. This guarantee it not qualified in any way. If this plug proves defective in service, we will replace the defective part. Please send with the defective part 5 cents for return postage. Send defective parts direct to us and not to your dealer. Furnish dealer's name to us. We will not replace broken parts showing abuse.

FOR OILY CYLINDERS
This Plug Fires Where Others Fail

The firing points on Penn Plugs are set for ordinary use. For use in oily cylinders, press the firing points so close together that a sheet of writing paper will scrape both points as it is passed between them. Do not let points touch, as that closes the circuit. Most plugs foul from too rich fuel. Save 15 to 30 per cent of gasoline with Penn Plugs and get more power, less carbon and snapper pickups. When installing a full set of Penn Plugs adjust your carburetion to a weaker mixture. Before blaming your spark plug, test your ignition. Be sure your coils are properly adjusted. Tighten brass terminals with your fingers only. Their broad base forces them to seat themselves rigidly. After using this plug the first fifty miles, screw the upper bushing into the shell one-third turn, which will seat the gaskets permanently.

Rex Erickson and his friend, Mr. Nolley, have arrived in the city from Upland, Calif., having made the trip in eleven days and traveling an estimated distance of 2,600 miles. SKIN HEALTH ESSENTIAL TO BODILY HEALTH

It is just as necessary to keep the outside of the body protected against germs and infection as it is the inside.

Many diseases are transmitted through the pores of the skin. Many serious infections come from lack of proper skin care.

The best of skin protection is cleanliness. And cleanliness—actual, honest cleanliness—demands the use of clean, pure soap. You can't keep the skin clean and in a healthful condition when you clog the pores with impure soap.

Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap is the purest and best Toilet Soap that can be manufactured. It is made exclusively of the purest and most excellent ingredients of greatest cleansing quality. Then these ingredients are sterilized at 198° Fahrenheit. There can be no impurities in Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap. It cleanses the skin hygienically. Its soft, creamy lather removes all dirt, all accumulations from the pores of the skin. It leaves the skin—the surface of it down to the very depths of the pores—thoroughly clean, refreshed, invigorated. A state of cleanliness that establishes a degree of resistance against ailments that might arise through improperly cared for skin—and with it that desirable pink and white quality of complexion that can be acquired only through proper skin care.

Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap is not a medicated soap—not a soap for emergency use—but an everyday toilet soap of greatest soap purity.

ATTENDED THE RUSHVILLE RACES

Lee Rexroat has returned from a trip first to Rushville where he took in the auto races which he says were quite interesting. The course was but half a mile and the racers in the 75 mile course made 150 laps. A Nash Special was in the lead closely pressed by a Ford with sixteen valves and which had a fine prospect of coming in first when a hind wheel came off and while no one was hurt the machine was incriminated and had to quit.

The second place was won by a Buick driver and the third by a Busenber Special. A man from Waverly driving a Wallace Special was trying out his car before the race when the steering rod broke and his car crashed into a fence and telephone pole and tore things up generally.

From Rushville Mr. Rexroat drove his car to Moline to visit his sister, Mrs. Robert Rexroat, where he had a very pleasant time. His Buick roadster brought him home all right.

LEVELAND WON DECIDING GAME FROM BROOKLYN

The Brooklyn Club crossed the field in a losing position. Then the home team slowly dispersed to discuss at this time the successful climax of Cleveland's forty year battle for a major league pennant and a world series banner.
In a conference between Mayor V. S. Fitzgerald and prominent business men of the city almost before the final cheers had died away it was tentatively decided to hold a public reception and welcome for the players of the team in the public square of the city within the next day or two at which the citizens will be invited to show their appreciation of the honors which the players of the team have brought to Cleveland.

The closing act of the super-baseball drama of the season was staged under weather conditions which were ideal. A sun of midsummer strength shone down on the fans from a cloudless sky with an intensity which made it almost imperative to remove coats and vests. Every seat and every foot of standing room inside the park was crowded to utmost capacity long before the teams began their battle, while trees, housetops, telegraph poles and towering advertising signs overlooking the park were black with men and boys who clung to precarious perches throughout the entire one hour and fifty-five minutes of action.

After the game it was announced by the National commission that the paid attendance had been 27,525 and the gate receipts $83,900.
It was the largest attendance and receipts of any of the seven games.
That those who witnessed the closing contest saw a game of usual standard is shown by the box score, but there were features which thrilled thousands which cannot be illuminated by the cold figures of either the box score or summary. Despite the two errors charged to Shortstop Sewell, he made two plays which made far to eliminate the youngster's misdeeds. In the fifth inning he stopped Miller's smash back of second base while on the dead run and got the batter with a fine throw to first. In the same inning Covaleskie was almost knocked down by a line drive from Grimes' bat but chased the ball half way to third and got his man at the initial bag.

Last of the Fifth.
In Cleveland's half of the fifth, Rightfielder Griffith made a thrilling try for Speaker's triple which scored Jamieson. After a long sprint he got his finger tips on the ball just as he crashed into the stand but could not hold the hard hit sphere. Second Baseman Kilduff also came in for a great round of applause in the second session when he came in on the grass on a full sprint and scooped up Smith's bouncer which had cleared Grimes' head by several feet and while clear off balance whipped the ball to Konetchy for the out.
Cleveland put across the first run of the game in the fourth inning. After E. Smith had grounded out, Gardner beat out a hit past Kilduff and went to third on a hit and run play when
W. Johnston singled to right.
Sewell flied out and Johnston followed with a delayed steal. The ball was slippery and when Grimes threw to second after taking Miller's quick return the ball went wild and Gardner scored.
The Indians annexed their next tally in the fifth inning. Cov-aleskie opened the inning by striking out, but Jamieson came thru with a scratch infield hit.
Wambanss flied out and Jamieson stole second. Speaker followed with a hard drive against the newly erected stands in right center field and Jamieson crossed the plate.
The final run of the series came in the lucky seventh. O'Neill started the inning with a double to left center but the plucky little back-stop was run down when Covaleskie grounded to Grimes.
Covaleskie however, managed to take second while O'Neill was being retired and he romped home when Jamieson drove the ball to right field for two bases. It had been planned to send Rube Mar-guard against the Indians in an attempt to check the winning streak of peaker's men, but owing to the court action of this morning, in which the pitcher was charged with violating the exhibition ticket ordinance and fined $1 and costs, Manager Robinson switched to Grimes in a last forlorn hope.

proud to be members of the Woman's Relief Corps for it teaches noble lessons of patriotism and duty to those of our number of the Grand Army who may need our assistance.

The woman's Relief Corps is the largest patriotic organization of the kind in the world. It has accomplished much in many ways. The members have been angels of mercy to disabled veterans and their families bringing cheer and sunshine as well as substantial relief into many a home darkened by privation and sorrow. The order secured the introduction of the United States flag into school houses; it has expended more than five million dollars for relief of worthy members of the Grand Army and dependent ones and in every way has sought to do the work of the order in a true and proper spirit.

Again we thank you for your cordial welcome and hope that our presence here will be conducive to the good and aims of our noble order.

Mrs. Angie Weber of this city was selected president and Quincy was chosen for the meeting place next year.

The convention then adjourned to Centenary church where an excellent dinner was supplied and admirably served. Grace was said by the pastor, Rev. D. V. Gowdy and all enjoyed the repast fully.

Afternoon Session.

The ladies gathered again for the evening session. The committee on resolutions reported:

Resolved: That the visitors to the district convention wish to express their thanks to Matt Starr Relief Corps of Jacksonville, Ill., for their cordial welcome and the excellent dinner served to the department president, Mrs. Anna Reilin and the national secretary, Mrs. Flo Jamison Miller, for their attendance and words of encouragement. Also to Mrs. L. Jane Hayes for the excellent manner in which the business of the convention has been conducted.

Jennie Mitchell, 91.

Mrs. Winnie Struck, 294.

Mrs. O. S. Campbell, 91.

A very interesting feature of the evening session was the question box when all manner of inquiries were handed Mrs. Miller, the capable national secretary.

The lady showed herself fully up to date and well posted regarding the ritual and rules and usages of the order and imparted much valuable information.

National Secretary Talks.

There was some time left and the lady was called on for some remarks which she gave with ability. She said in brief:

The national W. R. C. visited Ft. Sheridan where there were 9,000 men and 1400 sick. They gave the boys $950 from W. R. C. funds, for the hospital did all possible for the invalids still they pined for home fare and attention.

At another place there was a pathetic incident. A soldier boy was sick from a wound with no chance for recovery. One day the major passed by the boy's bed when the invalid asked him if he believed in prayer and if God would grant any request made of him. The official thought he would and the poor fellow begged the major to kneel and pray that the invalid might be taken away as his pain was so great and he had no desire to live.

The major did so, tho he said his father lived in the southern part of the state and he did so want to see him before the end came and he asked the major to pray for that which he did.

The boy's mother was dead; his father had no other children and was a poor man making a living with one horse, that he was trying to sell that he might get money with which to visit the son. The major went out among the boys and soon had the money to send the father who came promptly arriving six hours before the death of the boy, but in time to visit him when he was fully conscious. The father was deeply grateful and sent a touching letter of thanks.

The boys were well supplied with food but the major for some chicken broth which wasn't in the army ration. The W. R. C. devoted $500 to that purpose and the boys were truly happy.

At another place there were 500 soldier boys whom the W. R. C. cared for. At another place there were 600 of whom 300 were to go home Oct. 1st, but were not able to work and the W. R. C. cared for them. At Parkview, Penn., there was 900 insane and these had to be sent to the various state institutions where they belonged, some of them being in our city.

Americanization in

C. When a man comes to this country from abroad it is all important that he becomes Americanized as soon as possible. As soon as he pins a U. S. flag to his breast and takes one to his home and tries to teach his wife and family what it means.

The W. R. C. is taking up child welfare work which means good citizenship later on. The W. R. C. stands for loyalty and patriotism always. A Frenchman told the national officials of the needs of French women and their desire to do something to show their love for America and material was sent them to make poppies to be scattered over the graves of U. S. soldiers.

The order sent $1500 to the relief of Armenian children. With it all the first concern of the W. R. C. is the Grand Army of the Republic and for the welfare of the old soldiers the order will ever work and devote its best energies. Now here in our state and in few others there are state monuments to the boys in blue which should not be neglected. Our motto will ever be loyalty and devotion to the grey haired veterans with us. May the Father above bless them.

The chair thanked the members for the honor conferred on her and with pleasant words the convention was closed.

SERVICE LEAGUE WORK SHOWN IN REPORTS

Annual Meeting Held Tuesday Night — Addresses By Miss Hills and Rev. W. H. Marbach.

The Fourth annual meeting of the Social Service League of Jacksonville was held Tuesday night at the First Baptist church. One hundred persons were present to enjoy the excellent supper served by the Pastor's Aid Society of the church, and to listen to the reports and addresses. The supper was served under the direction of Mrs. L. B. Turner, Mrs. A. B. Williamson and an able corps of assistants.

H. A. Perrin, president of the league, presided and addresses were made by Miss Alice Hills, Superintendent of the Associated Charities of Springfield, and Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church. At the conclusion of the supper, Mr. Perrin referred briefly to the purpose of the league and its work through the past year. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. M. H. Havenhill, secretary. The report of the treasurer, A. C. Rice, indicated that the finances of the league are in satisfactory condition.

The active work of the league is indicated in some of the office records. During the year 1,955 calls were made at the office and 30 committee meetings were held. Eighteen cases were taken to the juvenile court and 521 garments were distributed.

Work In the Home.
Miss Hills, who as indicated, is general superintendent of the Associated Charities in Springfield, gave some interesting facts about her work in that city. She emphasized the value of the working relationship between over-seers of the poor and the organized charity representatives.

The speaker told of the practical value of a visiting house-keeper. By this plan of work the housekeeper enters the homes and by demonstration teaches women the best methods of handling their household affairs on limited allowances. By this plan some women are taught more sanitary methods of doing their house work and others learn lessons of thrift and economy.

Rev. Mr. Marbach spoke upon the duties of the Social Service league and suggested some of the ways in which the organization can be of value to the community. The facts on charity work available thru organization efforts can be of great help to the city in solving problems in connection with its charity work.

Directors Chosen.
The business session resulted in the choice of the following directors to serve for three years: Dr. Grace Dewey, J. H. Day, Miss Marion Fairbank, J. E. Osborne, Mrs. C. H. Russell, Judge H. P. Samuell, Miss Winifred Wackerle and Mrs. John Kastrop.

Other members of the board are: Mrs. E. P. Cleary, A. B. Williamson, Thomas Worthington, Mrs. M. H. Havenhill, Rev. Father Formaz, Miss Margaret K. Moore, Mrs. John Buckley, Miss Emma Weller, Mrs. James W. Brown, Mrs. Charles Fawcett, H. A. Perrin, A. C. Rice, Rev. W. E. Spooner, L. C. Vaughn, Miss Lucy Catlin, Mrs. Dennis Schram.

NO FEAR NOW OF INDIGESTION

A Host of People Seem to Throb on What Used to Provoke Indigestion Before They Learned of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

When the stomach becomes sour, with gasiness and heartburn due to indigestion or dyspepsia relief may be had by one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Simply chew them, no hot water nor any other fillers for a stomach perhaps already too much over-crowded.

These tablets supply to the stomach the alkaline effect which is what relieves the sour acid condition. They also contain pancreatin to help digest the starchy foods such as potatoes, rice, oatmeal, white flour, etc.

Get a 60c box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, have them on hand at all time and thus have no fear of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The fact that these tablets are on sale everywhere in the U. S. and Canada shows how generally recognized they are as an efficient aid when the dyspeptic stomach needs a little help.—Adv.

Not many people in Jacksonville know what has been done and is being done by the members of the Morgan County Service Star Legion (formerly known as the War Mothers of America.)

We have collected and have on file all the letters, published in our daily papers, written by Morgan county soldiers and officers.

We also have all legal papers and official notices published connected with the enlisted soldiers, whether drafted or of volunteers in the same place, the Public Library, corner of South Sandy street and West College avenue.

These clippings are used in helping to complete the questionnaires. Many of these are very incomplete and often very hard to decipher.

The soldiers seem very reluctant to hand in their questionnaires.

We will be greatly obliged to any relative or friend who will report the details of any soldier's service during the World War, and handing in these details at the Public Library, or to any member of the M. C. S. S. L.

Each soldier in any way will call for a blank questionnaire, and will write a history of a soldier's life, by answering the questions printed therein.

Then we may hope for our complete history, only waiting the gifted hand of some enthusiastic patriot to arrange and write.

The State Historical Society in Springfield is preparing this history of our state, in many volumes, a file to be kept in the State Historical Library.

But our Morgan County records cannot be included, unless we first prepare them. There is danger many names may be omitted entirely unless the greatest care, diligence and love for these previous records be continually exerted. All who loved our soldiers, who are proud of Morgan county's record in the World War, are earnestly solicited to aid in every way this record.

As a living memorial we have planned, and the Park Board have cordially endorsed our plan—the planting of the White Elm trees, our native American elms that grow so symmetrically and beautiful in our fields and forests, on both sides of our Victory Avenue. This avenue soon to be surveyed and laid out by Mr. Simons, a landscape architect now in New York engaged in this work, a man of national reputation. We already have half the money collected and in the bank. And so as the years pass and our soldiers walk with loved ones along this beautiful Victory Avenue, they may say with grateful hearts "We were not left unmourned for half a century, until nearly all our comrades had passed away."

Our pioneer fathers unselfishly planted the trees, which are today the beauty of our city, for future generations to enjoy. Let us follow their example.

During the past summer, monthly social meetings have been held, with programs of music, addresses and refreshments. These, with more earnest work, will be continued.

On Friday, Oct. 15, at three o'clock the first meeting of the fall will be with Mrs. F. J. Andrews, 1252 West College avenue. All interested and especially relatives of soldiers are most cordially invited.

NEW TASTELESS CASTOR OIL IS EASY TO TAKE

Strength and Purity Remain the Same, But Unpleasant Taste is Removed

A remarkable process perfected by the chemists of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., has resulted in a great improvement in castor oil, the reliable old family remedy.

This new tasteless castor oil has the same strength and purity as the old-fashioned kind. It's 100% pure castor oil. Nothing has been removed but the disagreeable taste.

Think what this means to mothers and their children. When the doctor says, "Give them castor oil," there need no longer be any trouble. Children need never know they are taking castor oil.

Grown-ups will also appreciate the difference between Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil and the old-fashioned nauseating kind. Sold by all good druggists. If you want a castor oil absolutely without nauseating taste, insist on genuine Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil. Three sizes, 15c, 35c and 65c.—Adv.

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I went the floor or did any kind of work it would bring me sickness on. I was weak, languid, had no energy and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."

There is Something in a Tube besides Rubber

WHAT every motorist hasn't yet found out is that you can't always judge the quality of a tube by the kind of materials that go into it.

U. S. Red Tubes contain the pick of the world's rubber—more and more of it coming from the United States Rubber Company's own plantations in Sumatra.

But what gives them their quality is the United States Rubber Company's manufacturing experience—longer and more varied than that of any other rubber organization.

The Gasoline Situation in 1910 and Now

IN 1910 there were approximately 400 thousand cars in the United States.

To operate these cars there was available a gasoline production of 750 million gallons, or, approximately, 1875 gallons per car.

In 1919 there were more than 7 million cars and trucks operating in the United States.

To supply these engines there was available, according to Bureau of Mines Report, 3 billion, 957 million gallons of gasoline, or, approximately, 565 gallons per car.

In neither case has consideration been given to the demand of tractors, stationary gas engines, or the gasoline required by the arts and industries. Nor have we considered the large volume of this product shipped abroad annually.

The above figures are presented so that you may visualize one of the problems the petroleum industry has been called upon to solve in the past decade.

In 1910 the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) marketed about 20 percent of the gasoline output of the United States, or approximately 150 million gallons. In 1919 this Company sold about 640 million gallons of gasoline, or about 17 percent of the total for that year.

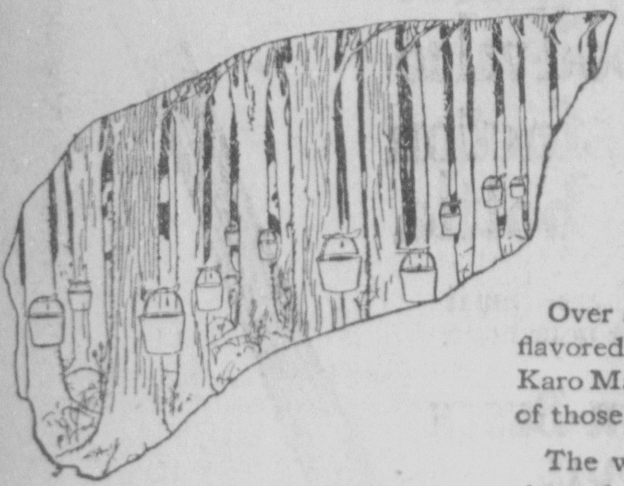

It has been the task of the 7 men who manage the affairs of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) for the 5124 stockholders, not one of whom owns as much as 10 percent of the total, to expand the organization not only to keep pace with, but to keep ahead of the extraordinary and persistent demand for gasoline.

How well they have succeeded is illustrated clearly by the fact that in the 10-year period above mentioned, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken a leading part in increasing gasoline production 440 percent, while crude oil production increased only 94 percent.

MATERIAL FOR LOTS OF ALCOHOL
London.—There is enough raw material for the manufacture of 50,000,000 gallons of power alcohol yearly in the Pacific Islands, particularly Fiji and with that from British East Africa and Kenya Colony, the total requirements of the world could be met, says the Auto-Car.

The three materials contemplated are maize, cassava and sugar cane, and it is estimated that the cost of these crops would be such as to enable the raw material for a gallon of power alcohol to be available at 12 cents. The periodical estimates that after paying the cost of transportation the fuel could be marketed over here at the equivalent of 62 cents per gallon.

Paris.—The immense amount of detail which must require action by French statesmen is shown by the fact that the signatures of the President, Premier and Finance Minister are attached to a decree just published allowing a collector for the Official Journal 150 francs a year for shoes and other equipment.

The Minister of Finance, M. Francois Marshall who is charged with the execution of this decree has been very busily engaged in floating an American loan, an internal loan in France and in finishing his budget estimates for 1921.

LIVE STOCK FARMERS TO HAVE COMMITTEE OF 15

The immediate outcome of the Livestock conference in Chicago October 8 was the recommendation of the 100 delegates from 12 mid-west states that J. R. Howard president of the American Farm Bureau Federation appoint a permanent committee of not more than 15 representatives of various livestock organizations to investigate livestock marketing problems.

"To maintain that the methods of marketing that have served us more or less satisfactorily in the past are likely to serve us satisfactorily in the future exhibits a failure to recognize that conditions have changed and will continue to change," said H. W. Mumford, director of the Livestock Marketing Department of the Illinois Agricultural Association in a speech at the meeting.

"Most other lines of activity have changed quite radically. Methods of marketing products have not shown improvement at all comparable with improvement in other lines of activity."

Mr. Mumford made a plea that marketing be made cheaper and while he did not recommend the farmer's Livestock Commission Company a plan for all marketing ills or the end of effort he did point it out as an important factor in eliminating the unnecessary expenses of marketing, along with the local co-operative livestock shipping associations. Nearly every man at the conference seemed to think that the establishment of their own commission firms was the next step in line.

It was further agreed that a complete census of livestock conditions every 90 days would help the farmer in getting his stock on the market at the right time and knowing when to feed and how extensively. The Illinois Agricultural Association has inaugurated such a survey within the State.

"The public is most certainly interested in securing its meat supply," Mr. Mumford continued. "While the cost of meat to the consumer has at times been almost prohibitive, in recent years, excepting short periods of time, livestock producers have not received adequate compensation for the investment in time and money and risk they have taken. But it is well enough for the public to know that farmers have been obliged to choose between lowering the costs of production and marketing or discontinuing business altogether."

C. H. Watts, manager of the Farmer's Union Livestock Commission Company at Omaha told how the company had started three years ago on $2,000.00—borrowed—and in spite of hard sledding first year pro-rated an average of 45 per cent of the commission back to the farmers, and are now getting more stock than any other firm in the yards.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

PAIGE

The Controlling Factors in Price Making

On September 29th we announced a sweeping reduction in the list prices of our motor cars. At that time we stated that there was no economic justification for such action and it could only mean a very substantial loss to this company.

This loss we very cheerfully accept in the interests of a worthy movement to decrease the excessively high costs of living. But no business can remain permanently on a non-profit basis and, unless commodity prices do actually decline, our experiment will merely prove to be an expensive failure.

In brief, materials and production costs must come down in the very near future or the price of Paige cars must inevitably go up. These two elements—materials and production costs—are the controlling factors in price making and upon them rests the entire manufacturing structure.

We have stated the facts in a blunt, straightforward way. Paige cars are today selling for less than the cost of production and you, of course, realize that such a condition cannot continue indefinitely.

It merely remains to affirm that we shall not, under any circumstances, depart from the high standards of quality which have always characterized our vehicles. Irrespective of cost, the Paige will continue to be a fine mechanical product—worthy of your complete respect and confidence.

Mabel McKinley—Niece of the Late President of the United States—Takes Nuxated Iron for Health and Strength
And Says She Regards It as The Ideal Tonic For All Weak, Run-Down Nervous Women

Dr. George H. Baker, Formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, Explains Why Iron Is One of the GREAT-EST OF ALL STRENGTH BUILDERS

Every woman who wishes to possess health, strength and beauty, should carefully read the statement of Miss McKinley who, after her personal use of Nuxated Iron, tells of the results obtained.
Miss McKinley says: "While I had often heard of Nuxated Iron I must admit that prior to using it I had no idea of its remarkable value for building up the health and strength. Following the strain imposed by months of the most exacting work singing for the soldiers in the various army encampments, together with my social engagements and charitable pursuits, I found myself in such a weakened, run-down state that I feared a complete collapse. It seemed utterly impossible for me to drop everything and go away for a complete rest, but I realized that as my condition was serious I must either do this or find something that would actually rebuild my waning strength and enable me to continue my activities. I had always been provided with tonic preparations which, for the most part, I found only acted as a temporary stimulant and usually left me more exhausted than ever. However, when my own family physician frantically recommended that I give a fair trial to Nuxated Iron, I consented to begin its use, with the result that after a few days the weakness and exhaustion from which I suffered began to be replaced by a feeling of renewed strength and vitality. In less than three weeks' time my whole system was tingling with energy and power and I was in superb physical condition. Nuxated Iron has accomplished as much for me as I could expect. As a strength, health and blood-builder, I am convinced that Nuxated Iron has no equal."
In commenting on Miss McKinley's statement, regarding the efficacy of Nuxated Iron, Dr. George H. Baker, New York, Physicist and Medical Author, says: "It is my opinion that in practically nine times out of ten, run-down nerves and failing strength and vitality are due to deficiency of iron in the blood. Many a woman who is run-down, nervous and who quickly tires out, suffers from iron deficiency and does not know it. I am convinced that there are thousands of such women who, simply by taking Nuxated Iron, might readily build up their red blood corpuscles, increase their physical energy, and get themselves back to vibrant and vigorous health. By enriching the blood and increasing its oxygen carrying power, Nuxated Iron will often transform the flabby flesh, toneless tissues, and pallid cheeks of nervous, run-down women into a glow of health, and make them look younger within a surprisingly short time."
Among other physicians asked for an opinion was Dr. Geo. H. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital, New Jersey, who says: "What women need to put roses in their cheeks and the springtime of life into their step is not cosmetics or stimulating drugs but plenty of rich, pure blood. Without it no woman can do credit to herself or to her work. Iron is one of the greatest of all strength and blood-builders, and I have found nothing in my experience so effective for helping to make strong, healthy, red-blooded women as Nuxated Iron."
MANUFACTURERS' NOTE: Nuxated Iron, which is recommended above, is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to chemists everywhere. Unlike the older iron compounds it is easily assimilated and does not irritate the stomach. It contains no arsenic, opium, or other harmful substances. It is a strength, health and blood-builder, and the world's Nuxated Iron is the standard. It is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to chemists everywhere. BLAMES HOME LIFE FOR SOCIAL UNREST

Speaker Before World School Congress in Tokio Declares Failure of Home Life is Responsible for Social Unrest and Crime of Today.
Tokio, October 13.—Failure of home life and not the failure of the church was held to be responsible for the "social unrest, the anarchy and crime and shame that abounds on every hand," by the Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, D. D., of Chicago in an address before the World's Sunday School Congress here tonight. The speaker charged that "25 per cent of the ministers of America do not themselves maintain family worship in their own homes."
"A wise teacher of ancient times said: 'Give me a single domestic grace and I will turn it into a hundred public virtues,' declared Dr. Biederwolf, "and I wonder, if we were to attempt to write the story of the deplorable legacy to which we have fallen heir if it would not be to tell the history of fallen altars and desecrated shrines and, to no little extent, of an apostate clergy. A missionary who had been absent from America for 25 years, said when he came back on a furlough: 'When I went away almost every Christian home had its family altar; now I find it is the exception and not the rule.' The causes for the decadence of family worship were set forth by the speaker as follows: "1. The quickening of a man's natural tendency to skepticism, so largely induced in this day by subtle and sometimes open attack on the fundamentals of his faith in press, in university and infrequently in pulpit. The first point at which spiritual decay manifests is invariably in the neglect of family worship, if indeed it even so much as held a place in the life of the home."

"2. The nervous, feverish rush of modern life as evidenced by the inordinate absorption in material interests. Modern life is a dash through a crowd. A man hardly has time to stop and tie his shoe-string. It is a race to keep pace with steam and electricity."
"3. The disruption of the family union." The latter was caused, said Dr. Biederwolf, "first, by the prevailing method of education which practically removes boys and girls from immediate and continuous parental influence in spiritual things for a period running between the ages of seven and 20 and second, by the excessive pursuit of pleasure."
"Legitimate as this desire is, when all one's pleasures are found outside the home circle the family life from the standpoint just now under consideration must consequently suffer," he concluded.
Other speakers at the Congress were the Rev. John T. Farris, D. D., of Philadelphia, who discussed possible cooperation between secular and religious educational agencies and the Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D. D., of Philadelphia who spoke on the community as a social center and its responsibility in guiding the religious education of youth.

LET'S START THE MOVEMENT HERE
Buenos Aires.—A pension fund for newspapermen is proposed in bill introduced into the Argentine Congress. The measure would authorize an appropriation of 500,000 pesos to start the fund which would be maintained and increased by contributions of five per cent monthly from the salaries of the beneficiaries, contributions by their employers of an amount equivalent to one per cent of their monthly salaries, and by donations, legacies and the proceeds of theatrical and other benefits. The fund would be supervised by the Press Club of Buenos Aires.
Persons who have been employed in journalism for 25 years and are at least 45 years of age would receive from the fund three per cent of their ordinary salaries multiplied by the number of years they have served.

BETTER CABLE SERVICE.
Tokio.—The economic crisis in Japan has had the result of immensely quickening the time for transmission of cablegrams between Japan and the United States. A falling off in business means a less crowded cable and messages that took ten days and over during the war now go thru in less than 24 hours.
The Ministry of Communications has cancelled the war decree, giving the same person the right to send only one urgent cablegram per day. Anyone may now send an unlimited number of urgent messages. Such cablegrams are always restricted to ten words and cost three times the ordinary commercial messages.

FORMER KING IS SPENDING HIS MONEY
Fears Inroads By Tax Collectors —Is Residing at Kerkhaus.
Belin—Former King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, fearing the inroads of the tax-gatherers, is enjoying his wealth by spending it. At Mergentheim, which he is visiting for the sake of the magnesia springs, he leads a jovial and unconcerned, existence in striking contrast to the cloistered seclusion of the former German Emperor at Amerongen.
Under the name of Count von Muranny, says a writer in the Zwaelf-Uhrblatt, Ferdinand is residing at the Kurhaus together with his suite composed of chaplain, chamberlain, chauffeur, footman, valet and private secretary. His lavish expenditure has made him popular in the town and surrounding country, where the villagers see in him an emblem of "good old times" and greet him with cheers as he drives past in an automobile.
The fact that the British government has released the former King's sequestered property is known to all and has earned for him the reputation, frequently embarrassing, of being fabulously rich. His chief purchases are books, bronzes, pictures and jewels. His secretary has a difficult task in keeping off the host of people who want private audiences on business. A chimney-sweep for instance, has discovered the secret of turning chimney smoke into high-class boot polish and wants King Ferdinand to advance him 3,000 marks for the exploitation of the invention.
Someone also has invented an ever-burning match and he wants money from the King to convert his theory into practice. The secretary has much trouble to make it clear that his master has finally retired from business. Other aspirants to munificence avoid the economically minded secretary and waylay Ferdinand on his motor excursions.
A man whose ambition in life was to shake hands with royalty received one day a card ostensibly from the Count Von Muranny inviting him to an audience. Overjoyed, he hurried to the Kurhaus in frock coat and tall hat. The victim of an hoax did not obtain the longed for audience, but instead four new 50-mark notes which Ferdinand sent out to him as consolation money.

WIRELESS STATIONS ON GREAT LAKES
Chicago.—Wireless compass stations, similar to those which have been in successful operation on the North Atlantic coast for more than a year, are to be installed along the Great Lakes. These stations, operated by the Navy Department, enable the operators to give to ships lost in a fog their position with a narrow radius of accuracy.
Fogs on the upper lakes have claimed one freighter and 30 lives as victims this year and record of previous years show a heavy roll of shipping. Success of the system on the Atlantic coast lead to its recent installation on the Pacific and now, it is announced, the inland waters are to be similarly protected.
One of the stations is to be built at Delour, Mich. and others at Grand Marais, Mich.; White Fish Point, Mich.; Eagle Harbor, Mich.; Thunder Bay Island, Mich.; Huron, and another probably will be located either on Wind Point, near Kenosha, Wis., or Grosse Point, Evanston, Ill. Others are being planned for Lake Superior.
